

Emotion in Motion. Early Modern Families and Communities in Transnational and Global Historical Perspective.

May 24th & 25th at Free University Berlin

Freie Universität Berlin

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

IFGD

Portrait of Pieter Cnoll with his wife Cornelia van Nieuwenroode 1665, by Jacob Jansz. Coeman

Program

Thursday, May 24th in Room JK 26-140 (Silberlaube, Habelschwerdter Allee 45)

2.30 pm Welcome Coffee & Tea

3.00 pm Opening by Margaret Hunt (University of Uppsala) and Claudia Jarzebowski (FU Berlin): “Emotion in Motion. Early Modern Families and Communities in Transnational and Global Historical Perspective.”

3.30 pm Julia Holzmann (University of Bremen): “Trafficked and Abused. Slaves and Servitus in the Dutch Republic of the 18th Century.”

4.00 pm Comment by Mary Lindemann (University of Miami), Discussion

4.45 pm Refreshments

5.30 pm Roundtable: “Chronologies in Global History”
in Lecture Hall HS 1B (Silberlaube)

Sebastian Conrad (FU Berlin), Thomas Ertl
(University of Vienna), Margaret Hunt
(University of Uppsala), Mary Lindemann
(University of Miami), Claudia Jarzebowski
(Moderation)

7.00 pm Reception

8.00 pm Dinner at a local Restaurant

Contact

Prof. Dr. Claudia Jarzebowski: claudia.jarzebowski@fu-berlin.de

Student Assistant Felix B. Kliese (FU Berlin):
felix@kliese.de

Friday, May 25th in Room 2.2059 (Holzlaube, Fabeckstr. 23-25)

9.45 am Coffee & Tea

10.00 am Francisca Hoyer (University of Uppsala):
“Travelers in the East Indies and their Left-Behind Families: Handling Absence and the Experience of Loss Abroad (18th century)”

10.30 am Comment by Claudia Ulbrich (FU Berlin), Discussion

11.15 am Coffee & Snacks

11.45 am Sebastian Kühn (University of Hannover):
“Families in Absentia: How to Deal with Gaps in Kinship Networks”

12.15 pm Comment by Francisca Hoyer, Discussion

1.00 pm Lunch

2.00 pm Margaret Hunt (University of Uppsala):
“Animals and Emotions in the Early Modern World”

2.30 pm Comment by Sebastian Kuehn, Discussion

3.15 pm Coffee & Tea

3.45 pm Debra Blumenthal (University of California/Santa Barbara): “Masters, Slave Women, and their Children in 15th century.”

4.15 pm Comment by Margaret Hunt, Discussion

Walk to the venue for the Evening Lecture

5.30 pm Claudia Jarzebowski (FU Berlin): “Love is in the Air. How Early Modern Families bridged Distances in Time and Space.”

7.00 pm Reception/Welcome by Sabine Schuelting on behalf of TEEME

