First set of regulations amending the regulations on postdoctoral university instruction qualifications (Habilitation) of the Department of History and Cultural Studies at Freie Universität Berlin, dated February 7, 2001

Preamble

Based on § 14 Para. 1 Clause No. 2 of the Partial Basic Rules and Regulations (Teilgrundordnung) (test model) of Freie Universität Berlin, dated October 27, 1998 (Freie Universität Notice No. 24/1998), the Department Council of the Department of History and Cultural Studies of Freie Universität has enacted, on March 12, 2008, the following first set of regulations amending the regulations on postdoctoral university instruction qualifications (Habilitation) dated February 7, 2001 (Freie Universität Notice No. 10/2001):*

Article I

The provisions of § 9 Para. V Clause 1 are amended to read as follows:

“The opinions must be presented for the review of the members of the Department Council, as expanded in accordance with the Basic Rules and Regulations; they must be presented for a period of two weeks during the period when classes are in session, and outside of the period when classes are in session for a period of four weeks, prior to the decision regarding the candidate’s written habilitation achievements.”

Article II

These regulations shall take effect on the day following publication hereof as an official notice (Official Journal of Freie Universität Berlin) and shall apply to all habilitation processes initiated after such point in time by way of an application for admission to the habilitation process pursuant to § 4 Para. I.

* These regulations were confirmed on March 27, 2008 by the Senate Administration responsible for higher education.
