

Early Modern Microhistory in a Global Context
2nd Oxford – Freie Universität Berlin Workshop in Early
Modern History

Oxford-Berlin Partnership

Oxford/Zoom 30.09-21 - 01.10.21

Organised by Daniela Hacke, Lyndal Roper, Edmund
Wareham & Róisín Watson

Please direct any questions to edmund.wareham@seh.ox.ac.uk

Abbess María Ignacia de Azlor y Echeverz (1715–1767)

Programme

* All times listed in British Summer Time ***

Papers will be held on Zoom. Joining details will be sent to all participants in due course.

Those listed under questions will be required to begin the discussion by asking questions that link the papers and are one sentence long.

Thursday 30 September

8:30-9:00: Workout with Lyndal (optional!)

9:00-9:30: Introduction; get-to-know-you session

9:30-11:00: Session 1

Stephanie Cavanaugh (Oxford), Local Sources, Global Comparisons: Legal Action as Resistance in the Early Modern Spanish World

Tobias Graf (FU), Microhistories, Microsources, and Global Entanglements: Reflections on Studying 'Princes of Mount Lebanon' in Eighteenth-Century Europe

Chloe Ingersent (Oxford), Separations in Star Chamber: 'neither maid, wife, nor widow but truly all three'

Questions: Lea Kröner, Clare Burgess

11:00-11:15: Break

11:15-12:15: Session 2

Kate Shore (Oxford), Edmund Campion's Rationes Decem: 'a small booklet [... printed in many languages and places'

Friederike Philippe (FU), Encounters of Difference. Ethnographic Knowledge Production in and of Early Modern Japan

Questions: Louisa Bergold, Birgit Näther

12:15-13:30: Lunch

13:10-13:30: Workout with Lyndal (optional!)

13:30-14:30: Session 3

Ryan Asquez (Oxford), Que doblen el día de su entierro: space, materiality and the senses in the mortuary provisions of Gibraltar, 1683-1704

Man Zheng (FU), All Under Heaven, Sino-Barbarian, Nine Regions and Four Seas - - Comprehending and Narrating the World in Ancient China

Questions: Kate Shore, Friederike Philippe

14:30-14:45: Break

14:45-15:45: Session 4

Rahul Kulka (Harvard), "Friedrich Schmidt Bornstein Arbeiter Crötinnen 1678" A Leading Provincial Amber Workshop of the Late Seventeenth Century Rediscovered

Franziska Hermes (FU), How much Global Can the Local Take? Shipwrecked East Indiamen in Eighteenth-Century British Imagination

Questions: Chloe Ingersent, Tobias Graf

15:45-16:30: Speed Befriending

18:00: Dinner for Oxford Participants (location TBC)

Friday 1 October

8:30-9:00: Workout with Lyndal (optional!)

9:00-10:00: Session 5

Louisa Bergold (Oxford), Lucas Cranach's Lucretia

Birgit Näther (FU), Medicine and the Senses - about Uroscopy, Stethoscopes, and Infectious Air

Questions: Rahul Kulka, Franziska Hermes

10:00-10:15: Break

10:15-11:45: Session 6

Lea Kröner (FU), Indigenous Missionaries in Northern British Columbia: Biography, Ego Documents, and Global Microhistory

Edmund Wareham (Oxford), Klosterstürme: The Experiences of Nuns and Monks in the German Peasants' War

Clare Burgess (Oxford), Weaponising Grief: The Women of the Guise Family and the Catholic League during the French Wars of Religion

Questions: Ryan Asquez, Man Zheng

11:45-12:30: Concluding Discussion