

BERLIN GLOBAL HISTORY COLLOQUIUM

15 November 2021 – in person

The Invention of International Order

Glenda Sluga (European University Institute, Florence)

22 November 2021 – online*

A Photograph with Two Stories: Lisa Larsen and the Bandung Conference of 1955

Naoko Shimazu (National University of Singapore)

*Time shift: 12:30–14:00

6 December 2021 – in person

The Globalization of Europe: Capitalism and the European Empires, 1500–1850

Richard Drayton (King's College London)

10 January 2022 – in person

The Colour of Labour: Plantations, Migrations, Racializations

Cristiana Bastos (Institute of Social Sciences, University of Lisbon)

17 January 2022 – online

The Universal Enemy: Jihad, Empire, and the Challenge of Solidarity

Darryl Li (University of Chicago)

24 January 2022 – in person

Colombo in Global History

Sujit Sivasundaram (University of Cambridge)

7 February 2022 – in person

The Political Economy of the Hadj in the Mediterranean: Maritime Shipping and North African Foreign Trade During the 18th Century

Guillaume Calafat (Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne)

Winter Term 2021/22
Mondays, 18:15–19:45 CET
Meetings will be held in person/via WebEx

For more info about the online sessions, visit:
geschkult.fu-berlin.de/e/fmi/bereiche/global_ history/index.html

In-person sessions in Room A336
Friedrich-Meinecke-Institut
Koserstr. 20, 14195 Berlin

Convenors

Sarah Bellows-Blakely,
Samuël Coghe, Sebastian
Conrad, Michael Goebel,
Sophie-Jung Kim, Adrián
Lerner, Timothy Nunan,
Joseph Ben Prestel, Esther
Sahle, and Yorim Spoelder

