

Accommodation Details:

SEMINARIS CampusHotel Berlin
Takustraße 39
14195 Berlin
Tel.: +49 (0) 30 557797-0

Dinner Venue:

Miss Wu
Königin-Luise-Str. 71
14195 Berlin
Tel. +49 (0) 30 89 54 00 01
Dinner starts at 7.45 pm.

New Approaches to Cultural History in the Early Modern World

Date: 15-16 February 2019

Venue: Fabeckstr. 23-25, room 0.2001

Organisers: Prof. Dr. Daniela Hacke (FU)
Prof. Dr. Lyndal Roper (Oxford)
Prof. Dr. John-Paul Ghobrial (Oxford)

Enquiries: julia.meister@fu-berlin.de cheryl.birdseye@history.ox.ac.uk

Programme

Friday 15 February 2019

2.30 pm: Welcome and coffee

3.00-5.00: Convent life and religion

- * Sarah Zeitler, Seeing and being seen in German Convents: The Visuality of the Observance (FU)
- * Ryan Asquez, The Suffering Christ: An Ubiquitous Image in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe (Oxford)
- * Edmund Wareham, Cash for Access: The Danger of Simony on Entering the Convent (Oxford)

5.00-5.15: Coffee break

5.15-7.30: Gender and Sexuality

- * Mette Ahlefeldt-Laurvig, "Kinderbeddsche Fruwen": The Ritual of Churching in the Duchies of Schleswig, Holstein and the Kingdom of Denmark (Oxford)
- * Lucy McCann, Material Maternities: Gendered perspectives on ivory anatomical manikins in Germany 1550-1750 (Oxford)
- * Naama Amir, Pleasurable Consumption: An analysis of the relation between sexual encounters, companionship and consumption in the London Pleasure Fairs in the first half of the Nineteenth Century (FU)

Saturday 16 February 2019

9.30-11.00: Cultural history in a global world I

- * Joel Butler, Anglo-Ottoman diplomacy 1565-1606: Integrating European diplomacy and Ottoman politics (Oxford)
- * Eva Diet, Hostages in French-African diplomatic encounters (FU)

11.00-11.20: Coffee Break

11.20-12.45: Cultural history in a global world II

- * Charles Beirouti, Edward Terry and the Muslims of Mughal India, 1616-1655 (Oxford)
- * Emma Zheng, Narrating and Mapping the world in China before and after the Jesuits' Arrival: Some Thoughts on Sino-European Cartographical Encounter (FU)

12.45-1.15: Lunch

1.15-2.40: Atlantic History and Migration

- * Franziska Hermes, Shipwreck in the English Atlantic (FU)
- * Cecilia Tarruell, Mobility and conversion in the early modern Mediterranean: Some reflections on women's paths between Christian and Islamic lands (Oxford)

2.40-2.50: Short coffee break

2.50-4.15: The Senses: Smell and Perfume

- * Birgit Näther, "A London Particular": Emission, Infection and Olfaction (c. 1650-1850) (FU)
- * Sarah-Maria Schober, Dissecting the Civet Cat: Approaches to a Scent and Symbol, Matter and Animal (Oxford/Basel)

4.15-4.30: Coffee break

4.30-6.00: War and Conflict

- * Katharina Delvig, Contingency and Life Strategies during the Thirty Years War (FU)
- * Louis Morris, The Identity of Foreign Soldiers According to the Commentariat of Cologne, 1576-1618 (Oxford)

Workshop Dinner