

Workshop

Postverbal word order: Turkish and Turkic contact varieties

10:00	Welcoming of participants (Ragagnin, Schroeder)
10:15 – 11:15	Jaklin Kornfilt: “Postverbal constituents and asymmetries between pre-verbal and postverbal word order in Turkish”
11:15 – 11:30	Coffee break
11:30 – 12:10	Kateryna Iefremenko & Christoph Schroeder: “Postverbal structures in heritage Turkish. Preliminary findings from our project”
12:10 – 12:40	Kateryna Iefremenko: “The postverbal position in Turkish-Kurdish language contact”
12:40 – 14:10	Lunch break
14:10 – 14:50	Geoffrey Haig: “Post-predicate elements in Turkic as an indicator of contact influence: evidence from East Anatolia and West Iran”
14:50 – 15:30	Cem Keskin “A periodic table of postverbal discourse particles in Turkish”
15:30 – 15:45	Coffee break
15:45 – 16:25	Annette Herkenrath: “Post-predicative elements in autobiographical Turkish, Kurmanji Kurdish, and German”
16:25 – 17:00	Sadan Altınok: “Türkçede bazı bağlaçların devrik yapıda kullanımı ve prozodi”
17:00 – 17:30	Concluding discussion

Location: Free University Berlin, Faculty of History and Cultural Studies, Fabeckstraße 23 – 25, Level 2, Room 2.2063

For a site map see:

<https://www.geschkult.fu-berlin.de/studium/studienbuero/Flyer-Holzlaube.pdf>

Organized by:

Prof. Dr. Elisabetta Ragagnin, Dept. of Turcology, FU Berlin

Prof. Dr. Christoph Schroeder, Kateryna Iefremenko, Potsdam University, Project „Clause combining and word order in heritage Turkish across majority languages”, within the DFG-funded Research Unit "Emerging Grammars in Language Contact Situations: A Comparative Approach (RUEG)" (FOR 2537)

