

GREEK PAPYRI IN THE BRITISH LIBRARY

A conference in memory of Federica Micucci

Monday, 25 September 2023; Knowledge Centre, The British Library, London NW1 2DB

9:30 – 9:50      Introductory talks

9:50 – 10:20    Susan Fogarty (University College London)
Orphan girls and the sale of their father's estate: red ink in Soknopaiou Nesos

10:20 – 10:40    Todd Hickey (University of California, Berkeley)
The priests of the temple of Soknopaios, AD 140/141

Discussion, followed by coffee break

11:30 – 11:50    Anna Szajbély (University College London)
Two tax rolls from Theadelphia, and stories of acquisition

11:50 – 12:10    Nikolaos Gonis (University College London)
Crown-Tax at Theadelphia, and stories of publication

12:10 – 12:30    Bianca Borrelli (University of Florence)
New evidence on Egyptian marriage practice and a family dossier from early Roman Tebtunis

Discussion, followed by break

14:30 – 14:50    Michael Zellmann-Rohrer (Freie Universität Berlin)
'He is going to be put in charge of the city': A private letter from Byzantine Egypt

14:50 – 15:10    Sophie Kovarik (University of Vienna)
'For this present logos protects you': A unique safe-conduct from Apollonopolis

15:10 – 15:30    Élodie Mazy (University College London)
Land, wealth and taxes in Early Islamic Egypt

Discussion, followed by coffee break

16:20 – 16:40    Anna Monte (University of Udine)
Writing medical recipes on the back of papyrus documents: the receptarium of P.Egerton 13 verso

16:40 – 17:00    Riccardo Vecchiato (University of Cologne)
A robbed brewer and a worried farmer in Ptolemaic Euhemeria

17:00 – 17:20    Flavio Santini (University of California, Berkeley)
Sitologoi at work in Tebtunis, ca. 165–178 CE: Preliminary observations on BL papyri 1571, 1581v, and 1596v

Discussion, followed by closure

